He died Monday, August 6, 2018, in Catoosa, Oklahoma, at the age of 82 years. Ron was raised and educated in Wichita, Kansas, and Tulsa, Oklahoma, and graduated with the Will Rogers High School Class of 1954. He continued his education at the University of Oklahoma where he earned his degree in business administration. He later attended the University of Tulsa. He spent most of his working life as an accountant with American Airlines in Tulsa. He was strong in his faith and attended Immanuel Baptist Church in Tulsa and then Garnett Road Baptist Church in Tulsa. Ron enjoyed a wide variety of pastimes including fishing, golfing, traveling, and camping, especially to Colorado. He coached and watched his sons in sports including football, baseball, and basketball. He was also a proud spectator of his daughters in gymnastics, diving, softball, and cheerleading. Ron served as an usher for the University of Tulsa Golden Hurricane at the time when they played at the Tulsa Expo Pavilion. He was a very passionate fan of the University of Oklahoma Sooners, all sports, but very passionate about football.
