“ I was looking for service information for someone else and saw this. Ronnie taught me to fly at Harvey Young Airport in the early 1970s. I was 14 years old but Ronnie had all the faith in the world I could pilot my dad's Cessna 150. And I had all of the faith in the world in Ronnie--anyone who could land a plane on a sand bar in the Arkansas River in an emergency had to be the best pilot ever in my eyes! The first time I took off from the left seat Ronnie opened the door and yelled "woman pilot, look out!" not long after we left the ground. He wanted to teach me to never be affected by unexpected events; to keep my cool if fear surfaced, and he did it in an effective and humorous way. I always wondered where he ended up and it is no surprise to me to learn that he became a teacher; he was a natural! I'm sure many people were blessed by his life. My condolences and prayers go out to his family and others close to him. Thank you for the memories, Ronnie, I will always remember that smile and laugh! ~Vana (Hert) Taylor

“ Enjoyed being in Air Explorer Scouts, Squadron 2 with Ronnie. He enjoyed everything from campouts/work details at the Zinc Scout ranch, to flying the squadron's 1946 Taylorcraft airplane. Even though Ronnie was just 4 years older, I always looked up to him as a role model--and he was a great one. I know he had a positive impact on many more lives than he ever realized.

“ I will never forget when Larry told Ronnie that he was going to be a dad and from the time on he started calling him dad . He also always referred to Larry as his little brother. Ronnie was a long time friend of our family and will never be forgotten. I remember ever time Ronnie would come to the house he would park out by the hangar and if Bailey was at our house she would always say "There's papa's friend!" Rest in peace Ronnie I am sure you and Larry are already talking planes!
Love and Prayers to the family,

Ronnie was my best friend cousin. I remember walking to the airport in Tulsa with him and going up in the tower with the tower watchman and watching the planes take off. He was just beginning to learn to become a pilot. I knew he was so smart for a young man of 14 yrs. I loved him very much. He carried the middle name of my Dad and his uncle, Reve Bates. I did get in trouble at the age of 5 for walking 2 blocks to the railroad tracks and climbing in the coal car. I got a good whipping. Not sure if he got into trouble. He was 8 at the time! Sweet memories!

“ Long time Buddy's, grew up together after they moved back to Tulsa. We were airport bums and hung out all the time at Tulsa International and knew just about everybody that worked there. Our other hang out, after Ron got his driver's license, was Harvey Young Airport, knew everyone there as well even Mr. Young. Spent time in the Air Explorers squadron 2 meeting at American Airlines on Thursday evenings. Though we didn't see one another a lot in later life we were best of friends. To many memories to remember. Soar on my friend,

“ A neat memory of Ronnie was when he played the part of an angel in a Christmas Dinner Theater at 1st Baptist Church in Collinsville. He was a rather unique angel. He had on a black leather jacket, angel wings, and a big deep gruff voice. Of course I have many memories, because he was my cousin-in-law. A fun, fun guy.
