“'My deep condolences on the loss of this precious lady. Many years ago, Mrs . Bishop was Sunday School teacher to a group of early teen girls at Cache Road Baptist Church in Lawton. My daughter and many of her friends were in that class, and when my daughter talked about her passing, she related what a wonderful experience Sunday School was with Mrs. Bishop. She touched many lives in a beautiful way and I wanted her family to know that she is well-remembered with love. We now have a son/grandson living in Owasso, and wish we had known of her living there...we would have counted it a great joy to have visited with her. The many seeds she planted for God have blossomed in His name. May the Lord be with you and bring you His joy and His peace in the works of your blessed Mom for His kingdom.'
