“ I worked at Baptist Village and had the privilege of knowing Miss Ruby and Ernie. Never before have I seen such love and devotion. Ruby had the sweetest smile. My heartfelt condolences to the family.

“ I have many memories of Ruby. One that will always be remembered is how giving Ruby and Ernie were to our family...moving my parents and siblings into their home after our home was destroyed by fire in Owasso. Ruby was always smiling and up for any adventure or task. She was a seamstress to admire, as she and my Mom designed my senior prom dress. Her laugh was contagious...a joy to spend time with Ruby! We will all miss her. Praying for you Ernie.

“ I will always remember her sweet spirit and kind smile. Growing up I would love being at my Grandpa Jack Potter and my Grandma Potter's house and have Uncle Ernie and Aunt Ruby come by for a visit. They loved us kids and we love them too.
