

Ruth Chambless

November 8, 1923 - December 1, 2014

'Ruth was a very gentle, sweet soul, and would be saying to all of us, "I love you" with that beautiful, big, infectious smile she always had. She loved, in such a big way, her family and her special friends. Everyone who met her fell in love with her. But we have to remember she's home now, really home. Ruth leaves behind a brother, Arlie Chambless, and nine nieces, Virginia Cobb, May Jo Collins, Nancy Luper, Rosemary Gee, Marie Moss, Debbie Currier, Carolyn Agnew, Marilyn Hughston, and Shirley Whitzell.'

“'Ruthie was my aunt and lived with me "I was so blessed". She was with me everywhere I went and we would laugh when I called her my little shadow. We has so much fun shopping, or seating on the porch having tea or taking care of the flowers in the yard. She loved Sundays, so she could go see her church family and get all dressed up. She went to Maranatha Baptist Church and had many friends there. I know they will miss her. I have a large hole in my heart since she left us. I LOVE YOU RUTH AND MISS YOU.'

“ ‘A tribute to Aunt Ruth. Even though we didn't see you the last ten or so years of your life, you were very much a part of our lives before that. Aunt Ruth did have a wonderful smile and loved to laugh. If I close my eyes I can still hear her voice. Some fond early memories - going to Grandma's house to visit - there was always Aunt Ruth, "Lady", their dog, the cuckoo clock chiming, and watching Art Linkletter while Grandma told stories. When we were smaller and Mom had one day a week off from work, we would come home from school and could tell Aunt Ruth had been there because she always folded our pajamas and put them under the pillow on our bed. Later after Grandma passed away, Aunt Ruth came to live with us. I was the last one to leave home. It was always reassuring to come home from school and have Aunt Ruth waiting. She always seemed happy to see you. Thank you Virginia for taking such good care of her and making her last years so happy. ’

“ ‘You said it all she was very happy. You and your family are very special for taking care of Aunt Ruth, and making her life happy and exciting. I know she loved going shopping for makeup, shoes and clothing. When I talked to her she went on about her favorite TV show "The Lawrence Welk Show". Now she is home and making everybody smile.’
