“ 'Our friendship with Ruth & Roy began over 40 years ago, when our children were young, busy and noisy. We cherish memories of the dinners shared in Fellowship Hall at Bethel, of friends gathered together for televised O U Football games. Bowling leagues, and numerous dinners and movies. Through the years we've remained close as we traveled through Nashville, on to the Smoky Mountains and to the Jersey Shore, then up to New York. We've traveled to New Orleans...Minnesota, Vegas...Florida, and cruised the Caribbean. All memorable vacations. Our hearts are saddened as we say good bye to our dear friend, but we find solace in knowing that on Tuesday, as she left this life for her new life, she was, without doubt, met with open arms by the Mother she loved so well, the loving brother, gone much too soon, and standing somewhere close by...Ben, Norma and Judy,\r\nFarewell.....Jim & Connie' ”
