“ I would like to send my condolences to Sammy’s family and friends. Sammy and I were cousins but since I am a few years older, he was closer to my younger brothers. I do remember him as very smart and quiet, and he had his mother’s beautiful smile. My thoughts and prayers are with you throughout this sad and difficult time.

“ Sam was such a kind man and a beloved cousin. I could always count on Sam to lend a listening ear and encourage me. His laugh was contagious and I always felt loved after a phone call or visit with him. I will miss him greatly but know I will see Sam again. My prayers are with Sandy and his sons, Jonathan and Brandon.
