“ We were so saddened to hear about Sam's passing. One of our fondest memories was when we would visit your home as kids and Sammy would play over and over the Chipmunk's Song and he would sing like Alvin, Such fun times for us! Later in years, we would receive a ham delivered to our door during Christmas. After couple of years of wondering, we were so surprised that Sam was the generous and kind provider. So thankful to have these great memories of our Sammy,
Cousins Margaret and Mary

“ Sam was a good friend and fraternity brother at the OU Sigma Chi house and for years after--including riding around in his HUGE 1960 something Lincoln Towncar!. A few years ago Sam joined a group of us for a weekend retreat at our little fishing cabin near Locust Grove and had a great time! I will miss him. In hoc, Mike Linscott

“ I did not know Sam personally, but I knew his family from Shidler. I grew up in Shidler and his grandfather, C.H. Guild was our family doctor and delivered me and my sister. He was our doctor all my growing up years. . I knew his Sam's father, Carl and some other members of his family, including grandmother Florence. My father would have been Carl's High school principal. Blessings and Best wishes to Sam's family. Avonelle Ward White Stillwater, Ok.

“ Years ago I had bought a pair of Earth Shoes, these were a new shoe design. I was visiting Grandpa & Grandma Meyer and Sam was there and I was telling him about my new shoes. He laughed and said he was a distributor [or had the rights] and had a warehouse full of them that he could not sell. (I question others did not like them as much as I did.). I always meant to ask him what he did with all those shoes, but never did.

Sam was a doer and not afraid to take a risk and I always admired him for that.

“ I was very sorry to hear of Sam's passing. Although I haven't seen him in a jillion years, he was my next door neighbor in B'ville for years. He was fun and I remember how he loved to dance (and he was a good dancer). Prayers for Tom and the rest of the family.
