

Sandra "Marlene" Denny

July 7, 1933 - August 25, 2025

Sandra "Marlene" Denny, born on July 7, 1933, in Uniontown, Arkansas, passed away on August 25, 2025, in Claremore, Oklahoma. She was the beloved daughter of Manie H. Bernard and Marie L. (Morton) Bernard.

Marlene was raised and educated in Uniontown, Arkansas attending Uniontown School. On May 7, 1949, she married the love of her life, Gilbert Ted Denny. She dedicated most of her life to the home, where she lovingly raised her four children. Throughout her life, Marlene found joy in the simple, beautiful things. She was enjoyed and admired for her many talents, which she shared lovingly with her family. Her skills in cooking, baking, along with embroidery were enjoyed by all and were a source of comfort and warmth to all who knew her. Marlene was known to all who met her for her smile of joy and her complimentary manners. Her faith was exhibited everyday in her every action. There was great comfort given to many from her being their prayer warrior in times of need. A faithful servant of God, Marlene is now Home and at peace in the loving embrace of her Lord and Savior.

She is survived by her son, Mark Denny and his wife, Laura; her sisters, Peggy and Judy; and her grandchildren, Julie, Stephanie, Alan, Daniel, Sarah, Travis, and Asher. She was preceded in death by her parents, Manie and Marie Bernard; her beloved husband, Gilbert Ted Denny; and her children, Steve, Hank, and Denise.

A funeral service will be held on Wednesday, September 3, 2025, at Mowery Funeral Service Chapel in Owasso, Oklahoma. Marlene will be laid to rest at Seabolt Cemetery in Nicut, Oklahoma alongside her husband.
