“ Scotty and I grew up together going to rodeos from the time we were 8 or 9 years old. I have good memories of us staying at each others houses and going to rodeos. I was privileged to get to visit with Scotty a few years ago and catch up a bit after a long time. I always considered him a good friend and I will miss him until we see each other again. ”

“ Scott was our dear family friend of 26 years. We spent many days camping and traveling with Scott, Robin, Regan, and Sarah. He was always willing to help someone in need and had such a kind heart. My most fond memory will be the day he gave his heart to Jesus many years ago in the little white chapel at a Talala Baptist revival. That day was the beginning of our families becoming life long friends❤️ Our prayers and love are with the Hendricks family!
