“ I was best friends with Sharon's granddaughter, Randie, when we were in middle school. I spent so much time with her and Randie, I considered her to be my own grandma. She was always so kind and loving. She always had her own sense of personal style. She took us to see the movie Titanic. Randie and I were a wreck after watching that movie. We we were both just inconsolable. She was so patient with us. Years later, I tried keeping in contact with her on Facebook. She had just really meant a lot to me. She will be missed.
