“ I just today discovered that my sweet friend Sherian entered the pearly gates of Heaven in January! She was such a great neighbor and friend. When my family moved in next door to them, she was always working in her beautiful garden and kept everything festive for every occasion! She was a warmhearted, welcoming soul and always friendly. There came a time when Sherian began having falls and on several occasions bones were broken. She was always pleasant regardless of her predicament. She always had her little Charlie, then a new St. Charles Cavalier that she loved so much. I've missed her since they had to move, but was glad they would be cared for. I'm so grateful for the blessed assurance that I'll see Sherian again in Heaven. Praying for the family as they grieve their loss.
