“ I met Sherri through her mother about 20 years ago. So I only knew her as Pat's daughter. Fast forward 15 years and I see her many times each month at my chiropractor's office. That's when I really got to know Sherri. She always had the ability to make you feel like the most important person. Just the way she placed heating pads on you or removed them, it was done gently and she'd lightly touch you back. She was an awesome woman, beautiful inside and out.

“ I met Sherri when she started working for Dr. Bogan at his chiropractic office. After a time I began telling Cameron there was a pretty blond lady with an infectious smile working there.

The day came when Cameron needed some chiropractic care so we sent him to Alliance Chiropractic. He met Sherri--and the rest is history. Hence, I have been accused of "choosing" my daughter-in-law.

And at the end she was still the sweet, caring, pretty woman, inside and out, that I met 27 years ago.

“ No amount of words can totally describe Sherri or our love for her. But if I had only one word to do so. It would be "LOVE". She gave it to us all. She received it from us all. Love is eternal. Gone, but never forgotten. She was gift from God to us all. As long as we all remember her "LOVE", she will never be forgotten ,she will be immortal. Let that be our gift to her. Immortality. That will be mine. Sincerely with love, Cameron.
