“ I remember visiting Mike and Sherry in Collinsville, when they lived in the garage attachment while they were waiting to build the new home. What might have seemed like an ordeal to some, Sherry treated as an amusing situation, sharing anecdotes of their adjustments etc.

The. I remember visiting Mike and Sherry after they moved into the new house. It was the same Sherry, So proud of Mike and all his attention and skills applied to their lovely home. But as always her first concern was enjoying the family, enjoying and making everyone feel comfortable and being sure everyone was having fun.

I will always remember Sherry as one of the good caring people, who knew not to sweat the small stuff, but enjoy each day. Always so much fun, but always very caring and putting her family first. I love Mike, and always thought his marrying Sherry, was the smartest thing he ever did.

“ I remember if we went on a trip, Sherry went with us and the same with you all. Also how they had a talk with me one day about coming into being young ladies. It just wasn't happening as fast as they wanted it to, so they wanted me to take them to a doctor to see what the problem was. Of course I had to laugh ! Was so sorry to hear about her death Our girls have gone away too soon. Our love to the family.
