

Shirley Ann Black

May 19, 1936 - July 27, 2014

Shirley Ann Black, resident of Tulsa, passed away Sunday evening, July 27, 2014, at the Parks Edge Nursing Home at the age of 78 years. Shirley was born May 19, 1936, at Marlow, OK to Garland and Thelma (Hall) Singleterry. She was raised and received her education in both Marlow and Duncan area. On June 5, 1956, Shirley and Arnold Ernest Black, Jr, were united in marriage at the Westside Christian Church in Duncan. Because of his military career, they resided in many areas of the country, settling in Duncan in 1977 following his retirement. Shirley has been a resident of Tulsa since 2012. She was a longtime member of the Ray of Hope Church in Comanche, OK. Shirley enjoyed many pastimes including fishing and sewing, but being with family and friends brought her much enjoyment. Those that survive and hold many cherished memories include her daughter Betty Black of Tulsa; daughter in law Carla Dye of Tulsa; two brothers, Steve Singleterry and wife Diane of Owasso and Robert Singleterry and wife Phyllis of Tucson, AZ. Also surviving are three nephews. Shirley was preceded in death by her husband in April of 2002; son, Robert Glen Black; and niece, Laura. Visitation will be from 4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m., Wednesday, July 30, 2014, at Mowery Funeral Service. Services will be held at 1:00 p.m., Friday, August 1, 2014, in the sanctuary of the Ray of Hope Church, Highway 81 & Refinery Road, Duncan, OK with Pastor Mike McCord officiating. Committal rites will be in the Resthaven Memorial Gardens in Duncan. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Shirley’s memory may be made to: Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation
