“'Stan, like my own life, you touched and affected so many others in a positive and enlightend way, in your journey through life... from our early youth through adulthood you were my best friend and my brother... I Love You forever and always My Brother... God Bless your family in their time of grief and loss, i only wish i had been able to know more of your new friends and family there since your relocation from the home of our youth... Go With God My Brother, I will see you on the other side, when he brings me home...'
