Sue was a lot of fun. She liked to laugh, and she encouraged me when I was a young woman. She and I were both on a church trip to Israel in 1994. Having her there made it a bigger adventure, and I remember that her perfume smelled just like real roses. Sue was a mom to all the young people that hung around her kids, spoke the truth without pulling any punches, and was proud of her children and grandchildren. I thought she had practical wisdom and admired her grit. Sue gave life a zesty flavor, and she really loved the Lord. Heaven just got more joyful. With fondness--Sarah Breese McCoy
