“ 'I had the pleasure of getting to know Ted over the last few years. He and I shared an office for a while and boy did he have some adventurous stories to tell! \r\nTed and I had a common interest in all things aviation, but what he enjoyed talking about most was his family. I received a daily briefing on the goings on. \r\nHe was so incredibly proud of you all and loved you very very much!\r\nHe was a good man and will be missed. Our prayers are with you.'

“Ted was a bigger than life character who was always enthusiastic, jolly and down right fun to be around. His irresistible smile was as big as a sunrise and could melt away anyone’s bad day. Ted was the ultimate example of Tim-the-Tool-Man. He could create or fix anything. Ted was completely unselfish with his time and talents. He would help anyone in need. Ted will be missed. The world will be a far less interesting place without him. Godspeed my friend.”
