“ I was in 6th grade Teresa was in 5th grade. Harvard hills shopping center had a shindig with a band and Twist and Shout dance contest. Teresa and I won 1st place in the dance contest. We were twisting & dancing as though our lives depended on it with dance moves we didn't know we had! & YES WE WON!

“ Teresa & I had just reconnected in February at a lunch gathering for our elementary school alumni. (We went to elementary & junior high school together.) She and I sat beside each other at the table, and she pulled out photos from our elementary days. Some of those pictures were at least 60 years old. It was such a rare treat to be with her that day and to relive those wonderful early years.

Now, less than 5 months later, she has passed to her eternal reward. I will always thank God that we had those 2 hours together to "stitch up" so many years into a beautifully packaged memory for me!

“ I loved Teresa. I loved her beautiful handwriting. She wrote me letters all through my childhood and became my penpal. We both had brothers and I found myself sharing my life with her. I spent summers in Austin and we always had so much fun. I loved her creativity. As I write this I am looking at my table runner that she made, and pillows that she made. I will treasure them. She was always quietly positive and that was impactful to my life. Rest easy and hug our family, until I see you again.

“ We were classmates all through jr. high and high school. I liked her and we were friends but not close friends. I was looking forward to talking and visiting with her at our High School reunion. She will be missed, she was well liked. Too young to leave this world. Rest in Peace my friend.
