“ I don't remember when I didn't know Elgin and Cokie. They were always such an encouragement to me. Cokie was so fun to be around and her laugh was infectious ! Elgin always stayed around Dad and so I didn't get to know him and he was so quiet. When I was little I could hardly wait for Cokie and Elgin to come to Pawhuska . Cokie would light up the room with her big smile and sparkling eyes when she came in. The day Vic was born was incredible ! Oh my goodness ! The joy was just overflowing ! Thank-you Cokie ! I'll never forget you . Your are one in million !

“ I have so many great memories of "Cokie". We spent many mornings drinking coffee. with donuts at Jackie Waldens house in Wagon Wheel Addition. Five moms' getting kids off to school so we could meet, drink and gossip.
"Cokie" as we all knew her, was a hoot. Loved her.
My heart is heavy with hurt for the family and their loss.
