“ Clark and I grew up in Duncan about 2 blocks from each other we went through grade school, junior high and high school, we all played summer baseball, Clark was the catcher on our team and I was one of the pitcher's we all played until we were 16 and that was the age limit. I knew that he moved our senior year of 1968 but didn't know where he had moved, they moved to Duncan in the late fifty's and his Dad was the manager of the TG&Y store when we were kids. I just wanted to let you know a little about him when he was a lot younger, we all played football, baseball in our neighborhood, there was a ton of kids where we grew up. On a more personal note it is always hard to hear about the death of someone that grew up when we were kids.
