“ Thank you Lord for Mema!

God knew I needed help and sent Velma in response to my add in the Owasso Reporter. Velma rescued me in 1982 when my first daughter Kristin was born. Velma walked in at 7:30 when I left for work and walked out at 5:30 when I got home from work. She took care of everything. She was at my home 50 hours a week! She knew exactly what to do when the twins were born in 1984. Lauren & Emily were a handful. Charles came over frequently for lunch and to paint and fix many home repairs. The kids loved Charles too. Charles and Velma would move in sometimes for special getaways for me & my husband. Velma took the girls to Dr. appointments and Our Little Saints Preschool on Tuesday & Thursdays. Trey was born in 1989 and Cameron came in 1992. Velma was there for everything.

Velma shined for Jesus everywhere she went.

I'm Forever Grateful for her love and wisdom and Godly influence on me my family.
