“ I am so very sorry to learn about my friend Virginia. Virginia hired me to work with her at Saint Francis Hospital and was a wise and good friend for many years. I will always remember the fun, humor, and work we had during those years. She was a beautiful lady both inside and out. I remember what a ready smile she always for everyone. My thoughts and prayers are with Tommy, Brendon, and Tonja. Sherry Sahlender

“ Our family sends the Orr family our love and caring in the loss of this great and important lady in your lives. To lose one's mother/grandmother is such a sad experience - yet most of us must travel that road. We ask for God's mercy and healing grace for all of you and that you get to the place where you are grateful you had her as long as you did and she got to enjoy the lives of your children. With sincere sympathy - Bonnie and Denny Williams

“ Virginia attended Inola HS for only a short time, but I never forgot her. I was so pleased to see her again at the funeral service of another beloved Inola classmate in 2019. Friends are never forgotten; they are just carried in our heart.
