“ Walter was a great man. I put all of my trust in him to run my business and he never let me down. He was also a good friend when we worked together. Every time I saw him during my retirement years, he was upbeat and positive lifting me with his great spirit. I will certainly miss him.

My sincere heartfelt condolences to Shirley Richey and her family. Walter was a very caring son, brother, and father. This was what I observed from being around him. He loved his mother, immensely and his family. I know that they will miss him, his love, and always being there for them.

“ Walter will be missed, I worked with him at TRISTAR Glass. When he would see you he would always say “Howdy Neighbor”. He always had a kind word or two say. You could hear him whistling a nursery rhyme. Walter was a pleasure to work with I will miss him.
