“ Nana June was always ready to meet for lunch. Trying to get her to take a selfie was a chore. I am so thankful that I snuck this one in. She also made a mean lemon pie. I will miss you.

Love, Wendy

“ My Nana June, where do I begin?
We lived just across the street, way back when.
We'd eat watermelon on the patio and play a game of horse.
Even jump on the tramp, but we remember how that ended of course!
Everything was a bet from fishing to playing cards for cash.
We'd swim in the pool, but you didn't dare splash!
Her hair always perfect and make up just right.
Her clothes always glitzy and always white.
Papa Everett loved her so much...
And spoiled her with diamonds, purses, and such.
She gave me my nickname that will forever be stuck!
Yes unfortunately, it's Mutton, darn the luck!
The memories we have will not go away.
She taught us to appreciate nice things, and how to love every day.
I've kept her flowers in my yard and her comforter on my bed.
We'll continue to remember as we move ahead.
I love you Nana, but now you can rest.
Tell Papa, "Hi" and give him our best.
It's been a hard year a lot of tears shed.
But our faith remains as our prayers have been said.

Gerri Lee "Mutton" Chandler
