“ Wanda Faye Turman was my mother-in-law, and she was as kind and caring a person as I have ever known. She was a loving mother to all of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Although she did not think much of my domino playing she welcomed me into her family without reservation. Her character and her faith were beyond question. Her love of Cherokee history and her lineage burned bright in her heart. She was a person of unique interests and devoted reader. Her love of life and family will burn brightly in all of our hearts.

“ My name is Kathleen, and I extend my condolences to family and friends. I only met Wanda "Faye" a few times. My friend of almost 40 years, Brandy, introduced us. Brandy is Faye's daughter. Our last visit was this past May. We looked thru package after package of old photos from Faye's life. Friends and relatives, some now passed, and pictures of Faye when she was so young. I think I recall her in a swimsuit! She was very pretty. We all had such a good time talking and laughing. Faye, I hope your passage to heaven is wonderful, as you connect with beloved husband, family, and friends.

“ I worked with Faye for some time and she was a gem and very popular with visitors when she assisted at a historic house museum called the Murrell Home. The photo and note below it were posted in the home's newsletter in 2009.
