An all-state basketball star at Bergman, AR in 1953, he earned a four year scholarship to the University of Arkansas. Their son, Mark Wesley, was born during their tour at George AFB in California.

In 1958 he continued his education and in 1962 obtained his degree at Wichita State University and began his career in public accounting with Arthur Andersen & Co. and later Coopers & Lybrand in Kansas City, MO. He enjoyed a brief interlude as comptroller with C.J. Patterson bakery. In 1972 he and a partner purchased a public accounting firm in Harrisonville, MO. He later formed a partnership with Ivan (Butch) Beeman with offices in Harrisonville, MO, Butler, MO and Olathe, KS. Mike Grozek and Dana McEntire joined as partners prior to his retiring in 2004. Wes was the president of the Chamber of Commerce in Harrisonville, served several appointive positions with the city, 10 years as treasurer of the Harrisonville Booster Club and treasurer of the Harrisonville School District. He was an elder, Chairman of the Board and Treasurer of the Overland Park Christian Church and the Harrisonville Christian Church.
