“ Even though we lost touch in recent years, I still considered Bill to be among my BEST friends. We shared so many memorable times in our youth. Words are useless in describing how much we will miss his humor and laughter. He was definitely one of a kind. The world is a more somber place without him...T Boyle

“ We are so saddened with the passing of our brother in law Bill, he was so caring and compassionate when we lost our son, though he has departed from this world, his laughter and warmth will remain forever in our hearts. His journey with us was too brief but his impact was beyond belief. May the memories of him bring you some peace in the days ahead. Gonna miss him at crazy gin, love to Bonnie, Jess, Kelly, Kevin, Ollie, and families, Steve & Holly

“ Where to start...there are so many memories. Bubba was always so happy and crazy at the same time. I worked with him on the budget for many years and it was always fun. We made it fun for each other because it was a massive job. I will always remember him being there for me, when my home got flooded in and I couldnt get in due to the water. I would have needed a boat. I will never forget when he was with me on a very emotional time of my life when I lost a dear friend, in the worst way. He was a dear fun man and I will miss him terribly. He made our picnics and fish fries alot of fun at American. There was no one like him. God is enjoying a good time with him now. Farewell dear friend you will always be a happy memory for me. Never forgotten. Kitty Sneed

“ I worked with bill for quite a few years at american airlines in the position of customer service agent..he was a ramp supervisor first,and then switched to the gate/ticket counter supervsior for a while..although its been several years now since i had last seen him,i still remember his smile,his sense of humor and his kindness..he and another supervisor at one of our christmas parties,knowing that my husband had been ill and hospitalized,made it a point to come to our table and have a nice chat, and wish him well..i never forgot that kind gesture as it meant so much to both my husband and myself..RIP bill murray..you had many friends at American airlines in houston (IAH)...susan watkins
