“Brother Dobbs was a gentle giant among Christians I have known. Quiet, but resilient, mild-mannered, but a man who could move mountains through prayer and his faith in God. He loved his family, his church and his pastor, and was ever faithful to them all. He was an encourager to those of us younger and a wonderful inspiration to me personally, which I will never forget. He will be missed by all who knew him. I can visualize the smile on the face of God when Brother Dobbs walked through those gates of Heaven, and I can almost hear the words spoken; "Well done thou good and faithful servant." May God supply comfort to all of the family through this time of sorrow.”
