“ I miss my Grandma Ferree! She was a beautiful person with a Christian heart and soul. I fondly recall her humming some old hymns while she worked. She was the best cook and she could can and/or preserve anything. Her smile made me smile.

“ Dearest Mother, Sept. 4 2018

You have been gone a little over 4 years now. Judy left us on June 19 and we miss her so much her birthday was spent in Heaven this year with you and Daddy. Joshua has been gone almost 2 years now we stopped and visited him Saturday, and polished his marker and took greenery from our yard.

Judy and I went to visit you three years ago when we went to Oklahoma, your stones are so beautiful, Daddy worked so hard to have everything so nice for the both of you, your lives and the Legacy you left for all of us, even to the end with your beautiful stones to leave your mark on this earth.

Oh you will be so glad that Judy made a contact with Roger Sheppard the Chaplin with Hospice, he conducted Judy's services, he came and visited her and he sang to her and for all of us, as he did for you, he has such a pretty voice. I felt I attended Judy's services with him there.

Of our immediate family I am alone now, I am well, Jac keeps having problems, so I try to help him as much as I can. Just as you and daddy helped each other.

*I will close now,
I am blessed to have had you as my Mother.*

Love Yvonne

P S I will enclose a picture of the family when we all came to see Judy when she was so ill.
